

Larry H. Miller
TOUR OF UTAH

TRAFFIC IMPACTS

2018 Larry H. Miller Tour of Utah
Saturday, Aug. 11 * Canyons Village to Snowbird Resort
Stage 5 presented by University of Utah Health
Race Time 11:30 a.m. to 3:15-3:45 p.m.

Listed here are probable impact areas and timelines for businesses, residents and visitors who will be using the same roadways as the Tour of Utah professional cycling stage race. The race includes both professional cyclists and caravan vehicles. The amateur ride for the Tour of Utah, The Ultimate Challenge presented by University of Utah Health, will also take place on Saturday and will be using the same roads. Rules of the road apply for this bicycle ride, so use caution for amateur cyclists between 7:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. For updated information, please go visit the Stage 5 section of the event website, www.tourofutah.com/stages/stage5.

Impact Areas - Canyons Village at Park City Mountain

- The start for The Ultimate Challenge presented by University of Utah Health will begin at 7:30 a.m. at Canyons Village. Expect delays from 7:30 to 8:15 a.m. along Canyons Resort Dr., Frostwood Dr., Cooper Lane, Sun Peak Dr. and Old Ranch Rd.
- The start for the Tour of Utah race will begin at 11:30 a.m. at Canyons Village. Expect delays from 11:30 to 11:55 a.m. along Canyons Resort Dr., Frostwood Dr., Cooper Lane, Sun Peak Dr. and Old Ranch Rd.
- Free parking for both starts is available at the Cabriolet lift. Public transportation and use of the Park City and Summit County Bike Share Program is recommended.
- There will be a neutral start for the opening 3.21 miles from Canyons Village to Old Ranch Rd. This section of the race is controlled by the commissaires with no attacks allowed and the pace is generally moderate. It allows the riders a short, warmup period and as a "parade" in the city.
- This neutral course will travel on W High Mountain Rd. and Canyons Resort Dr. at departure, then along Frostwood Dr., Cooper Lane and Sun Peak Dr. to access Old Ranch Rd.
- Highway 224 will experience temporary delays to allow the race to cross the highway.
- Racing will officially begin for the riders on Old Ranch Rd. at N 400 W, at approximately 11:36 a.m.

Impact Areas - Summit County

- The race will follow Old Ranch Rd. and travel east on Highland Dr., then use Silver Summit Pkwy and Old Highway 40 to access S.R. 248.
- The race will travel east on S.R. 248 for 15.3 miles. A Utah Office of Tourism King of the Mountain (KOM) climb will be contested at the Summit County line at race mile 14, the race expected to pass between 12:09 to 12:20 p.m.
- Five miles past the KOM, the race will travel south using S Democrat Alley, W 200 S, S Lambert Lane, S 1000 W, W Hilltop Rd., S.R. 32 and Spring Hollow Rd. to follow E. Lower River Rd. for 2.8 miles.
- The race will then turn on S Bench Creek Rd. and Aspen Hollow Rd. to reach a Utah Sports Commission Sprint line. This will be contested at the entrance to Wolf Creek Ranches at race mile 26.2, the race expected to pass between 12:35 to 1 p.m.
- The race will turn north on Highway 35 to pass through Woodland and return to Democrat Alley en route to Peoa. A small section of gravel roadway on Democrat Alley will be used for the race and could be impacted as early as 1:12 p.m.
- The race will travel along Brown's Canyon Rd. for 7.1 miles, using Richardson Flat Rd. to access Kearns Blvd (S.R. 248) and Park City. A Utah Sports Commission Sprint line will be contested on Kearns Blvd. in front of Park City High School at race mile 59.6, the race expected to pass between 1:45 to 2:30 p.m.

america's
toughest stage race™

tourofutah.com

- The race will travel along Bonanza Dr. to Deer Valley Dr. (S.R. 224) and continue north 8.2 miles for a Utah Office of Tourism KOM climb at Guardsman Pass at race mile 68.8, the race expected to pass between 12:05 to 3:05 p.m.
- Note: Use caution for amateur cyclists who will be using the same roads as the Tour of Utah for The Ultimate Challenge presented by University of Utah Health Care. Rules of the road apply for all participants, who will be using S.R. 248, Bonanza Drive, Deer Valley Drive (S.R. 224) between 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday.

Impact Areas - Salt Lake County and Snowbird Resort

- The race will travel west on Big Cottonwood Canyon Rd. for 13.8 miles, then turn south on Wasatch Blvd., expected to pass this area 2:40 to 3:45 p.m.
- Big Cottonwood Canyon will be closed to all vehicular and bicycle traffic between Noon to 2 p.m.
- Little Cottonwood Canyon will be closed to all vehicular and bicycle traffic between 1 to 5 p.m.
- A Tour of Utah Viewing Party will be held at the Swamp Lot on Wasatch Blvd. from Noon to 4 p.m. The race will be shown live on a big screen TV from start to finish and a food truck will be on site.
- Follow signs at Snowbird Resort to free spectator parking.
- The finish line will be located along Entry 2 at Snowbird Resort.

Special Notice for Motorists

- Passing is NOT permitted by any motor vehicle along the road being used by the professional cyclists or authorized race caravan vehicles. Traffic is allowed to follow behind the race, but only at the same speed as the race, which averages 22 to 28 miles per hour.
- If you are traveling toward the race (in the opposite direction of the race), the Utah Highway Patrol will be controlling all traffic at certain intersections, treating this as a rolling road closure.
- Without alternate routes, please be patient as some delays may occur.
- A portion of the race routes for the Larry H. Miller Tour of Utah pro cycling race will be located on the Dixie National Forest and Uinta-Wasatch-Cache National Forest.

—tourofutah.com—

tourofutah.com